

DR. THOMAS A. DANNENBERG

Dr. Thomas A. Dannenberg, or "Dr. T. A.," as he was affectionately known to his many friends and patients, was born in Rome, Texas, in 1880, into poor circumstances. Through self-effort and sacrifice, he gained his education as a medical doctor. After graduating from Physicians and Surgeons College in San Francisco in 1904, Dr. Dannenberg served his internship at Morton Hospital, in San Francisco, and then came to Utah.

He opened his first office in Kamas and after 22 years of service to the people of South Summit, traveling most of that time in horse and buggy. Dr. T. A. came to Heber, Utah, in 1926, to practice with his brother, Dr. Bert A. Dannenberg. Through their unselfish efforts and the help of Mrs. Maud Dannenberg, who acted as nurse and anesthetist, the first and only hospital was established.

Eleven times during his career as a physician and surgeon in Utah he went to the east coast and Europe for advanced study and research.

After Dr. B. A. Dannenberg left to live in California because of ill health, the late Dr. Karl O. Nielson became a partner of Dr. T. A. and together they successfully practiced their profession until the retirement of Dr. T. A., when he moved to California, in 1947.

Dr. T. A. Dannenberg died at Oakland, California, September 29, 1960. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Maud Reynolds Dannenberg; Ralph Dannenberg, of Rocky Ford, California; and Dr. Thurman Dannenberg, Oakland, California. Mrs. Alma Forbs, a daughter, preceded him in death.
